THE SITUATION.

Nothing is really more astonishing than that in a city such as Buenos Ayres, where the foreign commerce is positively everything—where banks and warehouses, shipping, railways, &c., are held, owned and enjoyed by foreigners—in an acute crisis such as that through which the country is now passing, the foreigner should be a perfect nonentity, and a mute witness of scandals which, by the merest representation of those interests, might have been avoided.

It is not necessary for a foreigner to be a Roquista or Tejedorista, a Mitrista or Avellanedista, to throw his influence into the neutral scale which hangs between both parties, and which, if used to effect by the foreigners in the Plate, would very soon decide for Argentines questions which they themselves are unequal to.

Every foreigner in B. Ayres—every Gringo in the Plate—will admit that it is more than a scandal, it is a humiliation, that the fate, the prospects and the future of this splendid country should hang on a single name. Argentines, Porteños and foreigners are at best but a pack of serfs when such a state of things is tolerated. If the name of any man threatens the country with trouble, or disunion, or revolution, then that name should be rubbed out from the list and another supplied; and whether in the public plaza or in the counting-house, in the streets, or at the club, the opinion of foreigners in the present emergency is unanimous: Ours be the task to give it expression, to promulgate it, to declare it throughout the nation, high and low—

Roja and Tejedor must both resign.

Those men whose vaulting ambition retards the progress, the well-being and the future of the country—those men, we say, should sink party motives, use no coercion, but leave the question untrammelled to the decision of the public voice.

The only political party which foreigners can legitimately join in the Plate is that of Peace and Progress, and whatever candidate starts up that compromises that programme should be opposed to the last by the foreigner. It must be evident to every one that political frenzy has risen to such a height that, if some neutral element is not employed, if some third party does not interfere, we shall have rivers of blood in our streets, and a miserable fratricidal street strife that will ruin our fair name abroad and put the country back to its status before Cepeda.

The affair at the Capitania on Friday night should be a warning to both parties: the few particulars that it merits we give at foot. It calls for remarks that would reflect severely on both parties, and points to a political degradation which the able pen of Sarmiento in his letter in the Nacional so clearly defines. Mutiny, treason and insubordination should be condemned by Argentines of every political colour.

The opinion of foreigners is that General Roca should resign, an opinion based on the sad political state of things which his candidature has provoked. A meeting is to be held in the Plaza 25 de Mayo to-day at 2 o'clock, and we understand that all are invited to attend. The measure is a good one, we suppose, but many, no doubt, will decline to attend owing to the very disturbed state of the city.

Meanwhile, it is useful that politicians of every party should know the unanimous vote of foreigners in the matter. Roca, personally, is as good a man as any other in the Republic, but, politically, his name is objectionable; it means disorder, revolution and bloodshed. The Swiss guard at the Capitania perished last night on account of Roca. Three thousand Tiro Nacionales and five thousand troops of the Line all stand this moment ready to fight it out, when a mere telegram announcing that General Roca fell into the river and was drowned would make us all shake hands and be friends. 'Tis really too bad.

The peace and happiness of a country such as this vast Republic—the welfare and property of two millions of people—the status of our markets—the values of our properties—all hang on a single name—and yet we call ourselves republicans! It is a slur on our nationality, an impeachment of our institutions; and not ten thousand Rocas are enough to answer to an indignant people for the present wretched state of the country. The following are the particulars of the 'motin' at the Capitania:—

On Friday evening the city presented an anxious aspect; the people were running to and fro, clustering at street-corners and rapidly disappearing. Gloomy forebodings were in the minds of all. A little past 10 p.m. a rumour spread like wildfire that something serious had happened, and shortly afterwards some shots were heard near the Paseo Julio. Some thought it was a struggle between Rifleros, Bomberos, Tiros Nacionales and some soldiers of the Line; others anticipated an attack on the Comisaria 1ª—but the truth turned out to be of a more serious kind. About forty marines from the ironclad El Plata, stationed in the Ayundantia of the Port, had mutinied, taken arms and shot the sentinel on watch. They had not time to seize all their Remingtons, as a voice loudly announced the approach of their commanding officer with a body of men, and then a general stampede ensued. Once in the streets the mutineers dispersed in various groups through the 25 de Mayo, Plaza Victoria, Cuyo, Corrientes and Parque. Some policemen attempted to stop one of the groups, and firing resulted on both sides. The police soon received reinforcements, but the mutineers had disappeared. A group of ten or twelve was arrested by the police, and whilst marching towards the Policia they managed to escape after a hard struggle, aided by some of their companions who came round by Calle Cuyo. In the struggle a policeman and a marine were wounded. Patrols were despatched in all directions to seize the marines, but all the researches proved useless. They had all eclipsed themselves. The whole night long the Rifleros, &c., were under arms, and it is miraculous how the marines escaped the watchful eyes of these vigilant bodies.

THE LATE DUEL.

The very sad fate of Pantaleon Gomez will probably check the frivolous duelling custom that sprang up in our midst and, for the want of a victim, grew to such inconvenient dimensions. We think we remember a day last year when three duels were fought and no one hurt: the bullet, however, that pierced Gomez's heart has proved a lesson not soon to be forgotten; and although the orations of Mr. Sarmiento and Dr. Gomez are excellent in their line, we should have preferred if their grief for the victim had not made them overlook in toto the cause which provoked the meeting. Unfortunately, of late years politics in this country have far more to do with duels than gallantry. There was a time, a long while ago, when lawsuits were settled by duels; the last duel ever fought in the Castle Yard of Dublin was to settle an account; and in reviewing the Registro Nacional published last year we discovered that duelling was first introduced into Buenos Ayres by an English merchant, about the year 1810, which led to action on the part of the Cabildo of Buenos Ayres to repress the custom. Within the last twenty years, however, duelling has become very common, but generally these affairs of honor had more to do with love than politics, until latterly the custom became so much in vogue that the slightest quarrel or most trivial dispute led to a challenge. In the very sad case under consideration, a series of the most insulting 'hechos locales' was the provocation, and although the law of the land prohibits duelling, still society has so sanctioned the custom that it is difficult to see what other course was left to the party abused to check these incessant newspaper attacks. The fault in this sad affair seems to have rested with neither principals nor seconds, but with society that now mourns the result.

Most of the evils that affect Buenos Ayres are chargeable more to society in general than to its members; whether political or social, domestic or municipal, half the ills we bear spring from the laxity of Buenos Ayres society. Pantaleon Gomez was shot through the heart in obedience to the rules of our society; let none deny it. His persistent attacks in the newspaper on Mansilla left to neither any other alternative than what they both embraced. We can neither censure the one for challenging nor the other for accepting; but the cause—the cause—is the 'hecho local' of the newspaper, that oftentimes carries with it a bullet just as deadly as that lodged by Colonel Mansilla in the heart of his opponent. The license of the Press of Buenos Ayres is growing to such a height that, it not checked, graves wide and deep will yet be opened for its victims: and although none more than ourself prize the invaluable boon of a free press, still must we confess, that were our papers less personal duels would be less frequent.

The hazard of a candidate, or of an election, or of public office, seems to weigh more with us than the hazard of Eternity. Life seems to have less charms for us than political interest, since we are quite willing to risk the one at ten paces distance provided always that we secure the other; and this points to a low line of moral training, an utter disregard of ties and responsibilities which may be severed at ten minutes' notice, merely to prove to the Buenos Ayrean world that we have courage and pluck.

We know of few sadder affairs than that of Pantaleon Gomez, who was generally esteemed by the very society that sacrificed him. His cause in the newspaper was not his own; he wrote in the papers not to vindicate outraged feelings or cruel wrongs, but to further the chance of this candidate or that; and had he but properly weighed the tremendous responsibility of his lines in the newspaper, it is possible he would have been more cautious in their composition and have avoided personalities of which the reading public of the Plate seem so fond.

The great political excitement caused by the President's Manifesto has given to our colleagues new subjects to write on, but this fatal duel is a matter that should not be overlooked. Pantaleon Gomez sleeps for ever in his narrow cell because society tolerates newspaper abuse and winks at duels which the law prohibits. Had our society a higher Press standard, the abuse which led to the rencontre would never have been published: and we much regret that the orations over Mr Gomez's untimely grave made no reference to this matter.

It is consoling to remark that the Supreme Court has thought proper to vindicate society, and that Court has demanded of the Chief of Police some explanation of the affair, and the reason why the police did not interfere, when the duel was publicly announced in the newspapers. Of course we all well know that beyond the formality of a reply from the Chief of Police no further action will be taken, but the court has very properly demanded the explanation; and if the authorities, whose duty it was to prevent the meeting, were held responsible, it would speak better for public morals. The sharp fatality of this duel has redressed society, and since the occurrence we have had no more duels to chronicle.

Cordillera's Mails.

London, Jan. 15th.

According to a telegram of yesterday's date from Calcutta a large number of Mohmunds have crossed the Kambakka, and a fresh combination of Kohistanis is reported near Lundi Kotal and Dakka, which stations are being reinforced with a view to immediate offensive operations against the enemy.

Prince Hussan, third son of the ex-Khedive, arrived at Constantinople on Monday, and was provided with apartments at the residence of the Sultan's first Chamberlain.

Our Vienna correspondent telegraphs that a Constantinople correspondent of the Politische Correspondenz has given a long and detailed account of what purports to be certain utterances of the Sultan to Sir A. H. Layard. The Sultan is represented as having yielded to the demands of the British Ambassador with the worst possible grace; and it is added that Sir Henry himself has told his colleagues that he found the Sultan firm and almost ironical.

On Tuesday last a large crowd assembled in front of the National Casino Club at Pesth, and remained for many hours hooting and shouting. Several of the club windows were smashed, and, finally, the street had to be cleared by the military. About thirty of the rioters were arrested.

Judgment was yesterday delivered by the Court of Appeal at Rome in the case of the marriage of Gen. Garibaldi and Signora Raimondi, the marriage being declared to be invalid and not binding in law.

Telegrams from Cannes represent the Empress of Russia as having passed a quiet night.

Mr Parnell spoke at a meeting held at Massachusetts, when the sum of $3,000 was collected for the Irish Relief Fund.

The recent total eclipse of the sun was perfectly witnessed by the observation party from the summit of the St. Lucia Mountain, in California 6,000 feet above the sea level. It is stated that the first contact occurred within 1½ seconds of the computed time.

Lord George Hamilton last night delivered an address to the students and graduates of the University of Edinburgh, in celebration of the foundation of a Conservative Association amongst them. He reviewed at great length the action of the Government, and described its foreign policy as its sheet anchor, and declared that the lines upon which it has moved are identical with those adopted and handed on by every Government of the last thirty years.

It is stated in a special despatch from St. Thomas, published in yesterday's New York Herald, that on the 4th inst. the Island of St. Kitts was ravaged by a flood in which two hundred persons were drowned and property of the value of $250,000 was destroyed.

Her Majesty yesterday decorated Private William Jones, of the 2nd Battalion 24th Regiment, with the Victoria Cross for his gallantry at the defence of Rorke's Drift, where, as hospital orderly, he assisted in the removal of the sick from the hospital building whilst it was being forced by the enemy.

The Stock Markets improved yesterday morning, but closed flatter. Compared with Tuesday, the variations in home lines comprised a rise in Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and South-Western, and a fall in Great Northern 'A,' Brighton 'A,' and South-Eastern 'A.' As regards foreign securities, Argentine and Turkish Defence improved, while Egyptians Unified and Hungarian slightly receded. Some of the American railways advanced, but Atlantic and Great Western Mortgage Bonds gave way. Consols were unaltered, at 97⅞, ⅞. From the Bank about 50,000 sovereigns were taken out for Egypt.

THE TAY BRIDGE DISASTER.

The search for the bodies of the missing passengers at the Tay Bridge yesterday resulted in three bodies being found, bringing the total number recovered to twenty-nine. The weather being intensely cold, an intense frost having set in, fewer boats were out. Mr Waddell, contractor, had a new trawling apparatus at work, drawn by a steamer, and by this means one body was recovered, that of William Veitch, eighteen years of age, a cabinet maker, of Dundee. Two bodies were recovered by whaleboats. One of these was David M'Beth, guard of the train, forty-four years of age, and unmarried. His features were firmly set, with an expression of alarm upon them, and his eyes were fixed and staring. His watch had stopped at 7.15. The other body was that of George Ness, cleaner in the railway company's service, who travelled on the engine from Leuchars. He has left a wife and one child, who live at St. Andrews. Arrangements are being rapidly pushed forward by the contractor for raising the submerged girders.

These funerals took place yesterday from the mortuary. The first bodies to be removed were those of David Cunningham and Robert Fowlis. They were conveyed to Fife, and interred in Kilmany Churchyard. There is a remarkable coincidence to be noted in the fate of these young men. They were 20 years of age, they had been companions from boyhood, they served their apprenticeship together as masons, they worked and lodged together, they perished on the bridge together, their bodies were recovered at the same time within a few yards of each other, and yesterday they were buried in Kilmany Churchyard beside each other. The funeral of William Pebbles, late land steward in Invernesshire, took place yesterday, the body being taken by hearse to Barnhill Cemetery.

The Tay Bridge Relief Fund has now reached the sum of £4,018.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Pacific Company's splendid steamer Cordillera brings 8 days' later news from Europe, to the 22nd ult. The Times calls for an International Congress at Santiago, to bring about peace between Chile and Peru. The British Government has decided on seizing Herat, having learned that Russia intends to occupy Merv, under pretence of restoring order there. The misery in Ireland is increasing daily; the landlords have their farms thrown on their hands, and none will rent them except on terms which would work a total change in the position of the tenants and improve their lot. The coolness between Russia and Germany grows apace. A serious affair occurred recently at the officers' mess of a Russian regiment on the Posen frontier. Several German officers were invited to dine at the mess, and a dispute as to German ingratitude to Russia arose and went so far that the Russian Colonel could hardly protect his guests, and had to send them home under a strong escort of Cossacks. The French Senate is showing decided signs of 'kicking' against M. Ferry's Education Bill, one clause of which goes so far as criminal imprisonment for parents who do not send their children to the public schools.

Yesterday was a very disagreeable day—too much politics and too little rain. All kinds of rumours were afloat, none of them worth sixpence in point of veracity. The meeting at Mr Madero's house was numerously and most influentially attended, and is considered 'the first word' of the order-loving section of the people, native and foreign. The Monster Meeting called for to-day in Plaza Mayo, at which President Avellaneda will address the people, will probably be the grandest manifestation of peaceable public opinion ever seen in South America, and the politicians on both sides will have to bow to it. Peace will be the one topic and aim of the meeting. Nineteen-twentieths of the people cry for Peace, and will have it. The time has come when the voice of the real People must be listened to. 'Vox populi vox Dei.'

The row at the Capitania on Friday night caused a prodigious hubbub while it lasted, and gave some of our colleagues a good deal to do in the bulletin way yesterday. Full particulars of the 'shindy' will be found in our leader. We understand that but for the energetic and zealous Port Captain, D. Carlos Mansilla, the affair might have been much worse; we hear that he objected to the sailors of the La Plata being brought on shore at all, as he considered his own men quite sufficient for any emergency. The most extravagant rumours about this scuffle are afloat, but it seems to us to have been only a drunken sailors' brawl at a most inopportune moment.

Governor Tejedor's resignation of his candidature appeared in the evening papers and had a good effect. General Roca must now do the same, and the situation is saved.

Some of the foreign ministers telegraphed yesterday to Montevideo for the war ships of their nations to come up here at once.

The Rio Government has taken vigorous steps to stop the spread of yellow fever: all immigrants have been sent into the Interior; all the conventillos are inspected daily, and several have been cleared of their inmates; fever patients are sent to special hospitals, and corpses are buried an hour after death. The summer is so far advanced that success is likely to crown these efforts to stop the epidemic.

The latest telegrams from the West Coast show how near the end of the war must be there. The Peruvians are going in for a guerilla warfare in the hope of getting back Tarapaca, and the Chilian Commander in Chief has ordered, as he has a perfect right to do, that all peasants taken with arms in their hands shall be shot on the spot. It is sad to see things arrive at this point: but 'a la guerre comme a la guerre,' and the wind up cannot be very far off.

The latest mode with the 'elegantes' of Paris is white dresses, white hats, white everything, trimmed with fur. We suppose this new fashion will be 'the thing' next winter in Buenos Ayres.

The reports about the camp at the Chacarita being entrenched and fortified are all 'bolas.' The trenches dug are round a corral for the cavalry horses.

Considerable alarm was caused on Friday night by a riot in a tavern near the beach between some tipsy Argentine sailors and the police. Shots were fired and one policeman got a ball in the beard which spoiled his beauty.

Farmers rejoiced exceedingly at the rain yesterday, but they would like ever so much more of it. We hear wonderful accounts of the grand maize crop; nothing like it ever seen before this side of the Equator. It is also said that the wheat crop is by no means so short as speculators are doing their utmost to make out.

A movement is on foot to establish a community of the Passionist Fathers in the Convent in Calle Tucuman, lately vacated by the Irish Nuns, and a petition to the Trustees to hand over the Convent to the Order of which Father Martin is a member has been sent to all the camp districts for the signature of those Irish residents who may approve of the move. Father Martin has displayed so much pious and beneficial zeal in his mission since he came to this country that all the Irish people and priests in the camp will, doubtless, heartily join the movement for establishing here a branch of the venerated Order to which he belongs.

A good chance for a musical man is now offering at St. Andrew's Scotch Church, which advertises for a Choir Conductor.

Archbishop Aneiros will lay the foundation stone of the new church at Floresta this evening at half past six o'clock.

The Paris papers report a sad romance of the frost. Two lovers, both belonging to highly placed families, met with the usual want of smoothness which the current of true love has always encountered, their respective parents having forbidden them to meet. To evade this the young people used to go every evening to the fortifications and there meet, as if by accident, to enjoy a brief exchange of vows and tokens. One morning, after a night of terrible frost, a policeman found the unfortunate young lovers dead on the ramparts, both having succumbed to cerebral congestion from the extreme cold.

Instead of canalising the Riacho at Goya, as proposed, to facilitate the trade of the place, the engineers recommend the construction of a tramway from the town to the port, and plans of same have already been presented to the Government of Corrientes.

The National Government has abandoned the idea of founding colonies at Port Deseado and Gallegos, but has ordered a survey of the islands of Toba, Leones, Bahia Nueva and others, with the view of colonising them as soon as possible.

The political tension of the situation has put a stop to the Club La Plata Ball, the Burial of Carnival, the public masquerade balls, etc, announced for this evening.

They had a tight-rope walker, Sr. Rosso, at Montevideo during Carnival, and he performed so well that they have dubbed him Blondin the Second. The dynasty is likely to have a still worthier representative in Blondin the Third, Mr. Rosso's son, a little mite only six years old, who, when his father had finished, mounted the rope and went through all his feats with an ease and sang froid that fairly electrified the crowd and the baby performer was cheered to the echo, and kissed and fondled when he came down till he was half smothered. He went home with a grand laurel crown on his plucky little head.

We have received from Mr Jacobsen the January part of the Englishwoman's Domestic Magazine; it has been enlarged, improved, renewed and reduced in price: it now appears under the name of 'The Illustrated Household Journal'; it seems to have been the aim of the proprietors to combine fashion and domestic topics with good and pure literature. The illustrations are not confined to dress and needlework; there are two or three likenesses of celebrated persons. The short stories are very interesting; in fact everything about this periodical is good, and we advise our lady readers to subscribe. It is only 140 dollars yearly. Sylvia's Home Journal has also arrived and is as interesting as ever.

The National Government has issued an important decree about the landing of Europeau emigrants. It imposes a scale of heavy fines on the captains and crews of emigrant steamers, on the sailors of whaleboats &c. in the port, and on passengers or private parties who, in any way, seek to lead immigrants astray as respects the Immigration Laws, their being landed gratis and provided for, &c. This is an excellent measure, and, from all we hear, it was very badly called for. However, a scale of fines of 500 pats. down to 10 is admirably calculated to put a stop to the existing abuses, through which so many poor ignorant immigrants have suffered severely.

WHEAT-GROWING 'AD INFINITUM.'

(Concluded).

The following is a table showing the amount of albuminous (nitrogenous) matter and starch contained in the various kinds of grains:—

	Albumen. Per cent.	Starch. Per cent.
Wheat	16.52	56.25
Rye	11.92	60.61
Barley	17.70	38.31
Maize	13.65	77.74
Rice	7.40	86.21
Buck wheat	10.5	65.08

Next to barley, wheat is the greatest obstructor of the nitrogenous compounds of the soil. If we therefore suppose that every acre of land yields 12 bushels of wheat at 56 lb. per bushel, we deprive the soil on which such wheat was grown of about 118 lbs. of nitrogenous substances. Part of this may be supplied by the atmosphere, but the greater part must be replaced by the cultivator himself.

It must not be for one moment imagined that because the albumen is wanted the grain might grow equally large and heavy replacing the nitrogenous by carbonaceous substances and thus enable the grower to sell his produce all the same as a first-class article. Nature is not a cheat; her produce is always composed in the same proportions. Thus if the supply of the nitrogenous substances should fall short by one per cent. the grain will be lighter by about seven per cent., and so forth for every part that is missing. Starch and fibre producing substances are not likely to be wanting in the soil when we supply the nitrogenous compounds by manure.

In many parts of Europe a tenant farmer is obliged to sign an agreement with his landlord, to the effect that he will not part with any straw or manure from the estate which he is going to rent. In other leases clauses are inserted as to the quantity and quality of tertilizers which shall be used. These are all very fair and wise provisions, based on centuries of experience, and well worth the attention of the New World.

The want of fuel in this country which obliges the estanciero to burn what nature intended to go back to the soil as fertilizer is a slur on those who rule over these provinces, and who ought, at least, to profit by the experience of other countries. Why not compel every purchaser of Government land to plant so many trees for every acre he holds? Why not compel every man who cuts a tree to plant a new one in its place? Why not employ the soldiers stationed in various parts of the country at the planting? Nothing could afford them a more honorable occupation in time of peace than being employed for the public weal. These suggestions have all been carried out by some of the greatest and freest nations in the world, Great Britain, Holland, Germany, Austria, etc; why then have these wise measures been neglected here? Trees planted 50 years ago of almost any kind of wood would now form splendid forests to save this country millions and millions of money annually in various ways. It is not too late yet; although the present generation may not be a great gainer by a wiser policy in this direction, the rising generation will. A selfish and from hand to mouth policy is not worthy of a nation which aspires to be numbered amongst the great ones one of these days.

I have mentioned in former letters the utilization of slaughter house offal and bones as valuable wheat manure, but at present these items are either wasted or exported to Europe where, in spite of the first cost, freight and commissions, the farmer can afford to use them as manure for his corn crops and make a handsome profit, although he pays much more for his lands and his labour.

In hopes that my suggestions may do good in some quarters, I beg to remind those Powers that be

A match between these two clubs was played at Belgrano on Monday 9th ult., which resulted in an easy victory for the B. A. Z. C. C. by eight wickets. The good bowling of Messrs H. Stockdale and E. D. Mackern told well for the Z. C. C. as the appended score will show:—

This was a day of the greatest excitement on 'Change, and before the ring formed, the affair at the Capitania last night was discussed by all. The gold market, instead of advancing as outsiders thought it would do, dropped and closed five cents under yesterday's price. Many parties, who bought two days ago, thought proper to sell to-day; the vencimientos, it being the middle of the month, were large and reached 763,050. About 200,000 patacons were sold cash, opening at 31.70 and closing at 31.65, but nearly half a million were sold for the end of the month, opening at 31.85, and closing at 31.75. The sales of the day up to 2 o'clock amounted to 937,138 pats, but some heavy transactions between house and house not marked on the Bolsa were also effected.

Cedulas were not so firm as yesterday, opening at 82½ and closing at ⅜. Roads & Bridges dropped also and closed at 75⅜. Nat. Bank Shares 59.

At Montevideo to-day a whole fleet of quick steamers entered—
Humberto I. 23 days run, dates 22nd Jan.
Colina, Glasgow, 24 days, 21st do.
Gironde, Bordeaux, 23 do, 22nd do.

The mails come up to-night, but what with the weather and politics it is possible few will go to the Post Office in the morning.

Yesterday the Arg. Gas Company, which is ably managed by Mr Woodgate, held a general meeting and declared a dividend of 8 per cent, which speaks well for the Company.

The news from Rio about the fever is most unfavorable, and many think that quarantine will be increased to 20 days.

The gold sales were:—

We have received from a leading foreign merchant a sharp communication asking why the National Government has not paid the last two quarters' amortization on the ten million loan to the Bank; the letter has taken us by surprise, as we had thought everything was paid up and nothing due but the current quarter, but our correspondent says:—"According to the Provincial balance-sheet of the Bank the ten million loan stood as follows—
Due on 30th June, 1879.. 7,903,437
" 30th August, 1879 7,344,540
" 30th January, 1880 7,344,540
These figures clearly show that the Government owes to the Bank the quarterly amortizations falling due on 30th October, 1879, and 30th January, 1880.

The loss of the Italian barque Ana Olivari is reported; she was bound from Havre to Buenos Aires, sprung a leak, and on November 9th a Danish barque fell in with her, took off Captain and crew, &c.

At 3 o'clock the news on 'Change was that Governor Tejedor had resigned, and everyone now hopes to see Roca do the same. It appears that the Tejedor party, in the case of Roca resigning, will accept either Sarmiento or Irigoyen, but the Mitre party rejects both This is a new departure, nevertheless the news had a good effect on 'Change.

Owing to the rain this morning this was a dies non at the market, no sales. The payments for produce on 'Change were very light owing to its being but half a week.

The gold market ruled much easier at afterhours, patacones were sold cash at 31.55. Nobody seemed to know anything of the meeting at Mr Madero's, but it was generally said that the invitations were sent out by Dr Del Valle, and that a requisition would be made to Gen. Roca asking him to imitate Governor Tejedor and to resign. The upshot of the business is either Sarmiento or Irigoyen.

We are indebted to Mr Brooks, purser of Cordillera, for London papers of 15th Jan. they give the following about Arg. Stocks—

"Amongst Foreign Securities business has been comparatively quiet, but with a firm tone. Turks also steady, and Peruvian showed some recovery from the recent relapse. French Italian, Spanish, and U. States Securities were very quiet. Argentine were again weaker. The rates of continuation on most speculative stocks varied from 2 to 5 per cent, but on some speculative issues from 7 to 8 per cent. was required. Argentine Six per Cents, 1868, closed at 87-88; ditto, Public Works, 1871, at 86½ to 87½; ditto Hard Dollars at 67-69; Buenos Aires Six per Cents, 1870, at 85-87; ditto 1873 at 83-85; Bolivian Six per Cents, at 37-37½; Brazilian Five per Cents, 1865, at 95½-96½."

A serious train accident had occurred near Liverpool, many wounded and some killed; we give a summary of the news in another column.

The result of the meeting at Mr Madero's was to name—
Dn Felix Frias
" E Madero
Col. M Ramos

This Committee is to call a grand meeting in favor of peace and ask for resignation of Roca, to wait on both Governments to ask their cooperation. Foreign merchants will also be asked to hold meeting to aid the cause.

Exchange took a sudden jump up to-day, first class bills passed at 5.32 say 250,000 frs., and on London £18,000 at 50½. This advance on exchange tells on the gold market.

The accounts sales coming from Europe are simply splendid, we heard of some received to-day that show 22½ o/o profit.

On Monday Governor Tejedor publishes a manifesto; his letter in this evening's Libertad was much read on 'Change and much praised.

Flour has advanced, the following sales reported—
4000 arr. city mills at $10 ar,
1000 do 41 do.

Freights rule at 25s and 10 per cent for Antwerp, and 40s for salted hides; at these rates we report large engagements for Thales and Vandyck both to sail on 21st.

Dry hides dull in this market although stock small, horse hides do.

The sale of 5000 cow hides, Guabyu, effected in Montevideo, 51 lbs. at 80, equal to 53⅓ here.

Mr Casey sold:—

The market circular of Messrs Gaston Sansinena & Son was out this afternoon, but owing to press of copy we hold it for our next.

The Custom House receipts to-day were 137,977 pats.

At afterhours the following sales:—

The Committee of the Buenos Aires Exhibition are displaying most praiseworthy energy in their endeavours to secure success for the Great Fair. They have just despatched a special commissioner, Mr Thomas Moncayo, to the West Coast republics, Central America and Mexico, with over 1,500 copies of the plans, rules &c., of the Exhibition, to ensure that its aim and objects be well disseminated through the countries in question. Mr Moncayo will appoint an agent, to receive exhibits &c., in every city he visits. The time left now is so short that everybody connected with the coming Show will have to work pretty hard to have it ready at the appointed date. The works on the Palace in the Plaza will be commenced shortly, under the direction of Mr Paul Blot, C.E., who has been named Director General of all the building works.

The most favourable advices were received to-day about the maize crop, which is the largest ever gathered in the country. More than four times the acreage of the previous year was put under this crop, and the yield is in even still more favorable proportion. It is also confidently stated in well-informed circles that the wheat crop will prove fully equal to last year's, the failure in several of the Santa Fe colonies being counter-balanced by the larger sowings and splendid yield elsewhere. The present rise in price is by many considered to be purely speculative and not likely to last.

The Carnival 'pomito' trade gave a sharp impetus to the numerous spirit distilleries, which have recently been established all over the province. Our most useful industrial colleague El Industrial, reports that one distillery alone sold to pomito makers of this city 9,400 gallons of alcohol, for 282,000 m/c. This fact shows what an immense sum is spent during Carnival in the single item of pomitos. It is all for the good of trade, and remains in the country, instead of going to London and Paris, as in former years.

The French wine importers have advices from Cette of a great increase in the manufacture of raisin wine there; the importation of the fruit there during the last three months of 1879 reached 6000 tons, yielding two millions hectolitres of wine. This country ought to turn its attention to raisins, it has all the requisites.

The very favourable news about wool from all the European markets is much commented on, and not a few experienced heads think that much higher prices are on the cards. The recent remarks of the Nacional, to the effect that it is a sad and shameful sight to find us here on the verge of civil war and utter ruin, just at the moment when our credit and productions are in the highest favour in Europe are but too true. The Crisis was mere child's play to the crash awaiting us if a single shot is fired in civil strife.

The sale of 3000 fanegas of new wheat at Bragado is announced; price 180 m/c. Seller Messrs Arana Bros. Buyer a miller of Mercedes. Broker Mr O'Leary.

A Paysandu subscriber advises that the Exhibition now being got up in that town is likely to prove a success. The demands for space already embrace every available foot of it.

The demand for 'negro animal' is now much increased owing to the heavy requirements of the Tucuman sugar refiners. One hundred tons of the stuff was despatched yesterday. It wont be very long now till the import of sugar will cease, especially if Mr. Dillon, the energetic Chief Commissioner of Immigration, succeed in introducing the culture of beet root in the colonies.

The sale of the house No. 476 Paseo de Julio, is reported for 70,300 m/c, the base of sale being only 65,000. Buyer Don Pedro Oddero, auctioneer Dn Pedro Suarez.

The first agricultural colony on the Rio Negro is being formed. Fifty families have already asked for lands down there, and Governor Barros has asked the National Government to put them on the same footing as the new colony on the ejido lands of Parana. Of course there can be no hesitation at headquarters about doing this.

To-morrow (Sunday) will be the last day for applying for space at the coming Cattle Show of the Rural Society. Messrs E Sumblad, M Guerrico and Tulio Mendez are the Committee.

The yield of grapes this year is very large, and it is evident that the phylloxera is not half as bad as he is painted. At Flores, Moron, Belgrano and other places there will be a large quantity of wine made this year. The grape harvest in the Interior is expected to be of enormous quantity, the weather having been most favourable all through the ripening season.

A new firm has been started in Montevideo under the name of Messrs Groffre & Fermepin.

The following wool sales are reported in the Mount—
"10 to 12,000 arr. fine wool, reserved price, said to be 4$10 per arr. in the barraca.
"10 to 12,000 arr. wool reserved price."

The Brazilian bergantine Leao has been chartered to load in Sacra, Uruguay, 5,000 quintals meat for Rio at 5 rls. fts, for Bahia 6 do. for Pernambuco 7 do. and for Ceara 8 do and 5 o/o.

The Cordillera brought to Montevideo $3000 for a local firm and $235,000 gold for the London Bank.

The stock of yerba in Montevideo is completely sold, and a heavy rise in prices is expected for some months. In a few months the yerbateros will send in the new yerba of this year.

Advices from Rio report the exchange market's operations limited; small drafts on London were passed at 23½d bank paper, and on France 408, 409 and 410. Buyers offered for Sovereigns cash 1$350 and 10$340, the market closing with sellers 10$900 and buyers 10$840.

Mr. H. L. Green, shipbroker, under date B. Aires, 14th February, 1880, in his report for the mail, gives the following as the exports for the month ending 15th January, 1880:—

	67,463 salted ox and cow hides
	9,151 salted horse hides
	140,198 dry ox and cow hides
	3,382 dry horse hides
	2,019 pipes tallow
	230 boxes tallow
	182 bales hair
	43,258 bales wool
	3,850 bales sheepskins
	24,588 bags maize
	9,834 bags wheat
	49,100 qq. beef
	934 cases tongues
	338 bales tobacco
	6,677 bags bran
	716 bales hay
	31 live horses
	74 live mules
	2,767 live sheep
	7,990 bags animal charcoal

Freights in General—
The shipment of wool during the month has been heavy, reaching a total of 43,258 bales against 41,965 for the previous month. The total shipments for the season show 137,574 salted hides and 121,396 bales wool against 134,579 salted hides and 114,901 bales wool to the same date last season. Our freight market has been unsteady during the month and the rates on bales have fallen to 25s by steamer, and to 12. 6d. by sailing vessel; which are the rates of to-day.

The last rate on salted hides by steamer was 40s. but hides are scarce, the saladeros in this Province having suspended killing, and this rate may be considered nominal.

A good demand for sailing vessels still continues but at low rates, the disengaged vessels being still much in excess of requirements. There are now 29 vessels on the berth for Europe. The charters reach 28 against 30 for last month. There are disengaged 50 vessels with 20,612 registered tons.

The following official statistics show the shipping trade of the port of Montevideo for the year 1879—

Ocean Navigation

Arrivals—

351 steamers	528,619 tons
693 sailing vessels	252,251 do.
1044	730,870 do.

In this number are comprised 7 steamers with 10,243 tons, which entered this port in ballast, 56 sailing vessels with 13,939 tons do. besides 137 sailing vessels which entered this port representing 44,501 tons, and made no operations whatever. In fact, 814 vessels with 712,883 tons registered entered the port.

The sailing vessels that paid tonnage dues, number 411 with 151,543 tons.

Departures—

341 steamers	519,548 tons
450 sailing vessels	167,091 do.

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall. Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

FLUIDO LITTLE

(THE LITTLE DIP)

Especifico para

CURAR LA SARNA EN LAS OVEJAS,

El mas eficaz

El mas barato

El mas facil de aplicar

De todos los Antisarnicos hasta ahora conocidos.

ESTE ESPECIFICO es libre de veneno y se disuelve al momento y enteramente en agua fria; puede ser empleado en cualquier estacion del ano. Ha alcanzado ya tal fama en esta Provincia que es casi el unico remedio empleado en los partidos de Chivilcoy, Mercedes, 25 de Mayo, Chacabuco, etc. Viene en bambores y cascos y se usa mezclado con 100 partes de agua.

TODAS LAS PERSONAS que han usado el Fluido Little estan contentisimas con el, como se vera por las cartas recibidas por los Agentes de los Sres. E. Casey, Eugenio Keenan, John O'Connor, John J. Gahan, George H. Scott, Michael J. Kearney, Luke Rooney, John Brown, E. Garrahan, Henry Saint John Forssman, Alejandro J. Garcia, Benito Crisol, etc.

EL PROFESOR KYLE en una carta fecha 17 de Febrero ppdo. dice—"Juzgandolo de un punto de vista quimico, con la mayor confianza puedo recomendar a los Estancieros el Antisarnico Little, y no tengo la menor duda que dentro de poco sera el favorito para la cura de la sarna, etc.
